Fr. Cooper's Corner
Priesthood Sunday 2015

“To fall in love with God is the greatest of romances, to seek him the greatest adventure, to find him the greatest human achievement.” As we celebrate Priesthood Sunday, these words of Saint Augustine resonate in my heart with deep emotion. God is defined in Sacred Scripture as love. “God is love and anyone who lives in love lives in God and God lives in him” (1 John 16). The Catholic priesthood is the vehicle through which I have been able to experience and participate in the love of God.

I am in love, and my eight years of priesthood have been an amazing adventure of love. My bride is the Church, the Bride of Christ. Most of the time my bride is beautiful to behold and wonderful to be with, but sometimes my bride can be like a nagging wife in curlers or worse yet, unfaithful and corrupt. Nevertheless, Jesus calls me each day to love this Bride with renewed love made in acts of service, patience and forgiveness.

Yes, I am in love. I love the incense as it makes its way to the sky in praise of God. I love our sacred music and our chants. I love our prayers that console us so. I love our cathedrals, our basilicas, our churches and our small mission churches. I love our saints who inspire us so much by lives lived with grandeur and poetry. Most especially I love the martyrs because they preferred to die than to give in to evil. I love our popes, especially popes like St. Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI, and Pope Francis who have provided me with so much inspiration on how to be a good priest in the time that I have been called to serve the people of God.

I love the Catholic priests of my life: the priest who baptized me, the priest who heard my first confession and the priest who gave me the Holy Eucharist for the first time. I am grateful for those priests who inspired me by their example to follow in their footsteps and to those priests whom I call my friends. Most especially, I love to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. How amazing it is to stand at the altar of sacrifice and repeat those amazing words: “For this is my body which will be given up for you;” “For this is the chalice of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.” However, this life lived in love would have never been possible were it not for the love experienced in a loving home, where my parents passed on to me the greatest gift of all: the gift of faith. I am in love. I love being a Catholic, and I love being a Catholic priest.

My prayer is that I may persevere until that day when the Lord, who called me to follow Him as His priest, calls me to be with Him in eternal rest. On that day, I too wish to proclaim with St. Paul: “I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7).

These years of priesthood have been filled with many consolations. The greatest of them all has been the loving presence of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Through all these

My prayer is that I may persevere until that day when the Lord, who called me to follow Him as His priest, calls me to be with Him in eternal rest. On that day, I too wish to proclaim with St. Paul: “I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith” (2 Timothy 4:7).

These years of priesthood have been filled with many consolations. The greatest of them all has been the loving presence of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Through all these years, Mary has always been there to comfort me and to urge me on to fulfill my mission until the end. I long to see her one day in heaven! When we embrace, the suffering of the cross will give way to the bliss of the resurrection.

May God bless each of you for all the ways you have loved me into the priesthood! (Full article on frcooper.info)

All Souls Day Mass Remembrance

On All Souls Day we honor all of our deceased loved ones in a special way. Here at St. Benilde Church we will be remembering your deceased loved ones both on this day with the celebration of Holy Mass (Monday, November 2) and at all of the Masses throughout the month of November.

In that spirit, we invite you to inscribe the names of those you wish for us to remember and pray for on All Souls Day and during the Masses throughout the month of November on the special All Souls Remembrance Envelopes found in the vestibule of the Church. Please place your envelopes in the collection basket or bring them to the Parish Office before November 1. The suggested donation is $5 per name recorded on your envelop. Mass remembrance envelopes will remain on the altar throughout the month of November and names will be printed in the Parish Bulletin.
